Best Area for Indians in Newyork

ndian community plays an important role in American coding community.And the most educated community in America are Indians.

According to economictimes.indiantimes.com 44,02,363 was the population of Indian-Americans with multiple ethnicities.New York

City was home to nearly 8.5 million people in 2014, accounting for over 40% of the population of New York State and a slightly lower percentage of the New York metropolitan area, home to approximately 23.6 million. Over the last decade the city has been growing faster than the region. The New York region continues to be by far the leading metropolitan gateway for legal immigrants admitted into the United States.

Throughout its history, New York City has been a major point of entry for immigrants; the term “melting pot” was coined to describe densely populated immigrant neighbourhoods on the Lower East Side. As many as 800 languages are spoken in New York, making it the most linguistically diverse city in the world. English remains the most widely spoken language, although there are areas in the outer boroughs in which up to 25% of people speak English as an alternate language, and/or have limited or no English fluency. English is least spoken in neighbourhoods such as Flushing, Sunset Park, and Corona.

Almost everyone knows how diverse Indian culture is and so the food. The North Indian and South Indian dishes should be the preference of these people. So in this project I am trying to analyze in detail the Indian restaurants in New York city.

So as part of this project, we will list and visualize all major parts of New York City that has great Indian restaurants. Which have high rating as well as diverse food items.
